13. INTERVIEW REPORT

Mr. William P. Kampiles, a Watch Officer with the Operations Center, is resigning after seven months with the Agency. He indicated that after a short period of travel in Europe, he will return to the States to accept a job in private industry.

Mr. Kampiles attributed his decision to resign totally to a personality clash between the Deputy Director of the Operations Center and himself. He acknowledged that he had come to work in the Operations Center with the hope that within a period of one year to 18 months, he would be able to transfer to the DDO. Mr. Kampiles stated that the surplus condition of the DDO had no bearing on his decision to leave but rather the "hassle" which he constantly had to deal with in the office.

Expressing his opinion that most of the Officers in the Operations Center are treated more like clerks than professionals, Mr. Kampiles said he sees an extreme underutilization of much talent. Under present conditions, he said, a college degree is not necessary for much of the work performed.

Stating that he would not rule out the possibility of reapplying to CIA, Mr. Kampiles indicated he would be interested only in a position in the DDO.

The Operations Center advises that Mr. Kampiles is not re-employable in that office; however, they do not rule out the possibility that he might do well in another office.

REVOCATION OF CRYPTOGRAPHIC CLEARANCE

DEBRIEFING STATEMENT

1. I, Wm P. KAMPILES, have been informed that my CIA cryptographic clearance has been revoked effective this date.

2. I understand that revocation of my cryptographic clearance bars me automatically from further access to CIA staff cryptographic material or information, but that it does not release me from my obligation to protect the security of cryptographic information, the knowledge of which I might still retain. I shall continue to protect that information to the best of my ability, and I shall likewise protect the cryptographic information of other U. S. Government agencies should I have knowledge of that information.

3. I have read the provisions of Public Law 513 of 13 May 1950.
I understand that I am bound by that Act even after the revocation of my cryptographic clearance and my termination from CIA, and that improper disclosure of cryptographic information could subject me to punishment under the provisions of the Act.

4. I certify that no CIA staff cryptographic material remains in my possession.
